Hi Richard:

Yes! I've started doing the same. I did pay the $1,000 so just trying to get that back and a little more for some of the lifetime purchases I made. At this point, it is about building my list and putting them in my Aweber account.

Any suggestions as to what I should do? Should I continue to "push" to get paid?

I am also professional with him.

Last year, I swapped $500 in commissions for paid referrals.

I even set up a weekly pay schedule to start paying back commissions. He agreed IN WRITING and then never sent a single payment.

I have retargeted my goals for Matthew's programs, rather from earnings, to just list building, and catch them on the back end in getresponse and aweber. Earning means nothing if you cannot get paid.

Hi Richard:

It is more than a medical issue with Matthew. This has been going on for four months. I've heard from someone when I first joined to "watch out" as he knows of him and was told he has money problems. I just ignored this person but what I do know is I have earned over $800 since I first started about 5 months ago and have received only $175 of it.

Let's stay in touch. I've sent an email to John Worsham who is consistently at the top of the list of leaders . just to see if he is running into the same problem.

I won $10 a couple months ago from one of his promotions, but didn't receive it. Of course that wasn't worth pursuing . but what if everyone who won a little over time didn't receive it. That ads up.

At this point, he has a "trust" issue with me. I've been nice to him and I don't threaten him and he does respond if I keep emailing him. He always apologizes for the delay.

I've also seen a video online from a guy who never got paid and I confronted Matthew about it and he gave me some reason. Have you seen that video? Just go to YouTube and type in Matthew Graves.
