NEW! Free 14 Day eCourse to Your Inbox - Know Like Trust Factor

While Rodney Coleman no longer owns ListBuildingResources, he still maintains his email list, to which I am happy to be a subscriber. The new owner of ListBuildingResources has still retained much of the "good stuff" that Rodney has built, so LBR is a nice resource, inexpensive upgrade, nice advertising site, and also a decent affiliate opportunity.

Rodney has recently shared the autoresponder script for his KLT Factor eCourse with his subscribers. I used that as a basis, then enhanced it with examples of personal reviews, and a whole bunch of resources for you to download, use, share, or sell. I have granted full PLR rights to my subscribers.

Get the eCourse HERE

I'm working with support to resolve an issue with confirmation emails on MyIMPartners... Give it a day or so given the holiday.

Is Re-Gifting a Thing?

Rodney gave his subscribers an email with the subject, "Ready for Christmas? I have a gift for you!". The "gift" was the KFT Factor eCourse that he invited his subscribers to use and share, and included the source script in PDF and Text format that you can type into your own autoresponder.

But, I don't have an Autoresponder.

Take advantage of the discount pricing below on the MyIMPartners OTO's, but also realize that just the Basic AR at $14.95 per month would be sufficient if you are just starting out. I think 15,000 subscribers is a good starting point, recognizing that if you have more subscribers than the upper limit of the Basic AR, you most certainly will be generating enough revenue to afford the Pro AR or Pro AR-AI upgrades with a 30,000 subscriber limit.

If not MyIMPartners, then What are Other Autoresponder Choices?

I have two other recommendations. BuildABizOnline is one of my favorites, with a large complement of very nice tools for either the Pro, at $10 per month, or Pro Executive at $14 per month for unlimited everything.

LeadsLeap is also a opportunity, but my recommendation would be the Pro level, which is considerably more expensive, even with the discount you get for upgrading within 24 hours of joining.

Let's Talk Capture Pages

While MyIMPartners has an adequate block-mode capture page editor

(usable, but I'm not a fan), in about a week, Dave Mosher will be releasing MotionLeads for MyIMParters, currently being ported by the programmer to Dave's new system. This is the capture page builder currently used by MyVIPContacts and ListGeniePro autoresponder.

BuildABizOnline has a wonderful Splashpage Builder and Wizard that can produce video backgrounds, slideshows, ad bars, and exit-pops. One of my favorites.

Here is the page from BABO

WorldProfit Free Associates have access to unlimited pages through Landing Page Builder, with 14 free templates.

Here is the page from Worldprofit (design 7)

And, of course, you can create simple pages on any of Dave's safelists in MemberTools!SplashPage Builder.

A Note About Notices

You will observe, on my autoresponder messages and broadcasts, under my signature line, I provide some notices. Most autoresponders automatically include unsubscribe links and address info to be compliant with anti-spam regulations, but you will find that with MyIMParters, you must explicitly provide the tags that insert the required items.

Here is the signature line with notices and MyIMParters tags I use:

Need New Ideas?

There are so many ways to get ideas to help you create new promotions, approaches, or ad copy. Sometimes, it just takes a "tickler".

What if you could get 10 ticklers every day? I have a fantastic newsletter written by internet millionaire Stone Evans that delivers 400 days of "10 best" tips and ideas you can use to jog your imagination. (you can unsubscribe at any time).

Using ChatGPT to Help Your Business

You could take these ideas, plug them into an AI ChatGPT engine, and in MINUTES, get a complete campaign, new ad copy, unique subject lines, and even a complete message stream.

ChatGPT can be accessed for free. I recommend using your PC or laptop. I personally use the Worldprofit ChatGPT toolkit, but there so so many other places that offer free tools.

For example, I just opened my Windows Edge browse and clicked into the Search bar, and I was presented with a link to access the Bing ChatGPT.

I have tons of free ChatGPT training. Here are some links.

How I Use ChatGPT

- I get AI to create subject lines, video titles
- I get AI to rewrite old adcopy
- I use AI to write original ad copy
- I get AI to rewrite "canned" ad copy with a different tone and focus
- I use AI to create ad copy for capture pages, sales pages.
- I get AI to create Youtube video scripts, which I then convert into videos and post to my YouTube channels.
- I use AI to create graphics that I incorporate into splashpages
